

Sinclair Broadcasting is a disgrace! Shame on the FCC for allowing this to go on. Democracy is based on an educated electorate that actively participates in the political process. Thanks to the state of today's media, Americans are less educated about current events and policies that affect them than citizens of so-called "third world" countries are!